Obituary

DONALD WILLIAM STARK (May 2, 1930 - January 23, 2019)

It was with much sadness that club members learned of the death of Don Stark, who passed away peacefully at Burwood Hospital, aged 88.

Don attended Christchurch Boys' High School and was a member of the first XI. While it was traditional for first XI players to join the High School Old Boys club once they had completed their schooling, Don's independent mindedness plus the fact he lived in the heart of St Albans itself - and perhaps a little influence from family friends the Smiths (of Canterbury Sports fame) - he decided to join the St Albans club in 1947/48.

Don played for the Canterbury Under-20's Brabin Shield team before becoming the 31st St Albans men's player to earn selection for the full Canterbury side. He played two Plunket Shield matches alongside club-mates Zin Harris and Tom Burt (and future club-mate Sam Guillen) in 1953/54. He claimed the wickets of Black Caps Don Beard and Harry Cave on his debut against Central Districts in Palmerston North.

He played 70 Premier games for St Albans between 1948 and 1958, with the hard-hitting batsman scoring 1213 runs and taking 117 wickets with his off-spin. He struck five fifties in the mid-to-lower order, with a best of 90. A stand-out knock was the 23-minute fifty he scored against Old Boys in 1951/52, with his innings of 53 including the dispatching of RF Cook around Hagley Oval to the tune of 24 runs, the highest scoring over of the senior competition that year. He was also an exceptional fielder, even receiving the odd congratulations from vanquished senior batsmen after taking a blinder in the slip cordon.

He was part of a very successful and talented St Albans senior team which won three first grade titles during his era: 1949/50 (the club's first in 24 years), 1954/55 (the club's 50th anniversary year) and 1956/57.

Unfortunately for the club Don was transferred away from Christchurch on business but continued playing club cricket in Methven and Timaru. He also filled in for the Wainui team on Banks Peninsula well into his later years.

Don is survived by wife Alison, three children (Dave, Robyn and Ian), seven grandchildren and brother Roger, who was the club's former secretary for one season.

President's Report

On behalf of the Executive and Committee I take pleasure in presenting the Annual Report and Accounts for the 114th season of the St Albans Cricket Club.

We've made it through another season, the second under our new committee structure. If we thought that year one was difficult and things would get easier as we became more experienced we were wrong.

Several new challenges, committee member changes and lack of funding all contributed to a stressful year. However, we made it through and are certainly the wiser for it.

Most will be aware that for many years we have rented a house for our overseas professional and amateur players. Over the last two seasons this has not been financially viable, with both seasons costing the club several thousand dollars.

At the end of the 2017/18 season Ben Riggott (an overseas amateur) disappeared suddenly while still owing the club almost $4000. On top of this, last season we rented a four-bedroom house based on a promise that the fourth room would be filled by an amateur, but when this didn't eventuate it left the club picking up the tab.

Ben Riggott has repaid some of what he owes but has not been heard from since the beginning of March 2019. We continue to chase this debt.

The outcome from these ordeals is that we won't be renting accommodation in future years; the time, effort and costs involved are significant, making this arrangement unviable from here on.

Thanks go to Pierre Flavell for his continued hard work as chairman, Scott Mason as secretary, Brad Smith as treasurer and all committee members who have contributed their efforts during the season.

Unfortunately, Brad has work commitments which will preclude him from continuing as treasurer next season but he will remain on the committee, hopefully taking up the role again in the next couple of years.

Our prize-giving night in April was a great success and thanks to Duane Pettet for once again putting together the PowerPoint presentation which made the whole process very smooth and professional.

Our patron Ian Dempsey was on hand to present the major awards at the end of the evening - thanks Ian for a job well done. It was also good to see other life members in attendance. Matt Holstein won the player of the year award for the 2018/19 season. Congratulations Matt.

Congratulations also go to Amy Satterthwaite for being named captain of the New Zealand women's team in September 2018.

Congratulations to the Premier men's side for qualifying for the National Club Championships in Auckland and getting Saints oh-so-very-close to winning it for the first time; hopefully next season we'll go one step further.

To all teams and captains, whether you won your grade, came mid- or lower-table, well done and I hope you had an enjoyable season with one of the best clubs in the country. It's not just about winning but camaraderie, getting out on the playing field with the sun shining (hopefully) and enjoying team and personal successes.

I'd like to acknowledge and thank our various sponsors, charitable trusts, Christchurch Metro Cricket and the Christchurch City Council for their support last season.

Club auditor Bruce Harris continues to perform our financial review on a complimentary basis. Many thanks, Bruce, not only for completing our financials but also for your advice.

Ian Dempsey will once again take on the important role of patron for the coming season and we look forward to his whimsical speech when he opens the season at the end of September - not that long to go now.

Hopefully the 2019/20 season will be a great one. Please support your club by paying your subscription by the due date and continue to come to after-match functions as this adds revenue which is vital to the health and viability of the club.

Chairman's Report

It's hard to believe another season has gone by so quickly and as you read this report pre-season training has already started.

Firstly, many thanks go out to the people on this year's committee for the time and effort they put in during what was a very trying year, both on and off the field.

On-field Performance

Thank goodness however it was business as usual on the field. Across all grades - male and female - St Albans performed with pride and distinction, even picking up some silverware along the way.

Well done to every team for the way you presented yourselves in St Albans colours, with special congratulations to those who won their grades. Three sides collected four pieces of silverware between them: the Premier men (one-day and Twenty20), the Division 5 Buccaneers (main competition) and the Social 8 Twenty20 Artificial Maidens. We also had three second-placings, two thirds and three teams reach semi-finals. The North West Green and Red sides, to which St Albans contributes players, shared the Under-17 girls title.

Speaking of champions, a special mention has to go to the Premier men's side. Ben Langrope and his troops again performed outstandingly in all formats of the game this year, which culminated in qualifying for the National Club Championships. The team did St Albans proud in Auckland, reaching the final. It is down to the determination of the players and the support they gave their captains when chiming in with match-winning performances that took us across the line on a couple of occasions.

The Championship team too provided many highlights across both white- and red-ball cricket and three players were rewarded with debuts in the Premier side. With the depth of players we are establishing all bodes well for the future.

We also had some great performances again from the men's afternoon grades. This was reflected on the club prize-giving night, with the bulk of awards going to the Buccaneers and the Fozzies. The President's again performed admirably but, as age would show, ran out of steam and fell over at the last hurdle.

Women's Cricket

Last year I highlighted the many issues women's cricket had been facing, particularly given our proud history on this side of the game. There were many meetings over the year with regards to what to do to make it a better experience for all female players.

Unfortunately, after many meetings, discussions and presentations there has not been enough common ground yet reached between Burnside West University, Merivale-Papanui and St Albans to form a partnership with North West Cricket. I would like thank Nick Glennie and Nat Cox for their participation as well as others involved with trying to resolve this. This is a very emotive issue and there are many reasons as to why it has not happened, not just those being circulated.

Onwards and upwards. What's changed? Certainly not the commitment that St Albans makes to past and present players in offering an excellent place to either enjoy or excel at cricket. Barry van Beurten has been working tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure we are now sitting on a very strong Premier/Division 1 squad, both in terms of numbers and ability.

We have confirmed two outstanding English players who have signed for the season, as well as the return of St Albans stalwarts along with players coming into the region from further afield. It is also our intention to ensure we have a coach available to the team while playing and that our trainings are together with the juniors at NWC.

With these two teams, our champion Artificial Maidens Twenty20 side and the junior recruitment that we will be running, we are looking forward to an exciting season.

Overseas Professionals

We were fortunate enough again to have two overseas professionals, Tyler Lortan and Dylan Budge. Both of them provided key innings and moments that contributed to the success of the Premier men's team. Tyler will continue on with us next year as the second part of his contract and we look forward to seeing his excellent results again. Congratulations also to Tyler for making his Canterbury debut.

Coaching

What happens on the field is only as good as our preparation off it and we were lucky to have many quality coaches and volunteers to help organise practices and teams. A big thank you to our club coach Greg Dawson, whose efforts were rewarded by his players and through the results achieved. Greg has confirmed he would like to continue next season for a chance to build on the outstanding work he has done.

Overseas Players

We experienced an influx of players from overseas (predominantly the UK), with as many as five coming via the Sport Lived programme. It was our pleasure to host Ronan Pithie, James Brehaut, Alex Moore, Rory Humphrey and Tom Allen and we hope they all enjoyed their time in our fair city.

We also had a number of players who came to Christchurch under their own steam, mostly for work, with a stint playing cricket for us a happy bonus. Chris Morrison stayed in the club flat with our professionals in Riccarton, Mikey Hill was kindly hosted by James Tapper, while Sam Kearns and Cameron Howe-Dreyer lived on site at the Cathedral Grammar School where they were working.

We were even briefly graced by the presence of two of our past overseas players, with Josh Ballantine Dykes and Callum Dutia making a handful of appearances between them in the New Year.

It was great to see James Brehaut and Mikey Hill make their Premier debuts, as well as the results delivered by the other lads through the various grades. Chris was an outstanding guest and flatmate, with his attitude both on and off the field to be commended. I am glad he (and his dad) took the time to enjoy what New Zealand and Australia had to offer, as I hope it brings him back to the club someday.

Representative Honours

With individual success on the field comes recognition, and a few of our members achieved representative honours this year at various levels. Most notably, St Albans has the privilege of having a current national team captain in Amy Satterthwaite. Huge congratulations to Amy for being appointed to lead the White Ferns and we hope that many successful years in the role lie ahead. Lea Tahuhi was again selected alongside Amy in the White Ferns too. Well done to everyone selected (a full list of names appears later in this book).

Social Scene

The club is known for its social occasions and again this was the case this season. Opening day was frequented by many and the season was officially opened by our patron Ian Dempsey.

The Christmas party organised by the overseas players was a big success. The 'Best of British' themed night proved a hit, with a couple of events in particular causing much hilarity for those present.

The quiz night in March was again a huge success thanks to the organisation of Duane Pettet and Scott Mason. The defending champion team of Matt Holstein, Aaron Johnstone, Ben Langrope and William Southby again triumphed.

The bowl-off to round out the season was won by Hamish McLean, while the lawn bowls event returned after a two-year absence and was won by the duo of Greg Dawson and James O'Gorman.

Our club prize-giving was held in April, with president Graham Curgenven doing a brilliant job as emcee and organising the prize winners and trophies. It was held at The Bealey Ale & Steak House, a new sponsor to the club. I wish to thank Max Bremner and Darryl Park and their team for an excellent night and their continued support. You would have noticed how resplendent the Premier men looked this season in their white-ball matches, with the clothing supplied by Blair Franklin at Kookaburra and The Bealey.

The major award winner for the night was Matt Holstein, whose 50 wickets for the Premier men earned him the club's overall player of the year award. A full list of winners features later in this book.

Sponsorship and Funding

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our commercial partners and funders for their continued support during the season. I thought last season was one of the hardest years on record to acquire gaming trust funding throughout the region, but again for a challenge this year didn't disappoint. We were one of the lucky ones but still only received 21 percent of what we requested. It is vitally important to keep our relationships strong with these organisations and support them whenever possible.

A big thanks to Air Rescue Trust, Christchurch Earthquake Recovery Trust, Mainland Foundation, The Southern Trust and New Zealand Community Trust. Also, a huge thanks to Barry Cox and Domino's and Steve Crotty at Riccarton Liquorland for their player of the day vouchers, plus their one-off sponsorships at short notice. I'm really looking forward to working with you again next season.

Financial Performance

Treasurer Brad Smith outlines our financial performance in full later in this book, however I can advise that the club is reporting a loss this year. Given that there are many reasons as to why this has happened - grants, subscriptions, playing days to name a few - I believe that while there will be extra challenges in the new season we have the capability to turn this around.

A huge challenge next year will relate to our grant from Christchurch Metro Cricket. As you may have read, Canterbury Cricket have reported a loss this year, which will have a trickle-down effect to Metro and the clubs. We are already planning for an alternative as far as this is concerned, but it is becoming clearer that cricket clubs will be more and more reliant on a user-pays model. The club's budget has already taken this and other challenges into account for the upcoming season.

Committee

As with any organisation, the only constant is change, and there are a couple to the committee for next year. Most notably, Will Southby will be taking over the role of men's club captain. Brad Smith is standing down as treasurer due to pressing work commitments, though he will remain on the committee to oversee the handover to his replacement. I personally want to thank Brad for his excellent work since taking on this role and the dedication and passion he brought to it.

We are also losing Tegan Weston, Aaron Johnstone and Richard Mather from last year's committee. If you would like to become a committee member, please feel free to put your name forward at the annual general meeting. I would personally like to thank all the members of the committee for their support and efforts over the year.

Attendances at the season's 10 committee meetings were as follows:

		Meetings	Years
President:	Graham Curgenven	9	27
Chairman:	Pierre Flavell	10	9
Secretary:	Scott Mason	10	18
Treasurer:	Brad Smith	8	3
Men's Club Captain:	Kris Pagan	9	1
Women's Club Captain:	Ryan Thomas	9	16
Junior Convener:	Tegan Weston	3	4
IT Manager:	Duane Pettet	10	16
Bar Manager:	Richard Carrigan	10	11
Committee:	Murray Griffin	7	14
	Aaron Johnstone	6	10
	Richard Mather	6	4
	Nicola Blue	9	3
	Sarah French	4	2
	Nick Glennie	6	1

Summary

While there are many challenges that lie ahead in the coming season, we will ensure that everyone has the best opportunity we can provide for individual advancement or enjoyment of cricket in the future.

With a huge international season at Hagley to look forward to watching from our balcony, plus our own personal goals to achieve, I hope you all remain safe and happy for the rest of the winter. I look forward to seeing you all soon for what will be a great 115th season for the St Albans Cricket Club.

Pierre Flavell

Men's Club Captain's Report

Pre-season training for the 2018/19 season got underway in August, as it has in previous seasons at the New Zealand Cricket High Performance Centre at Lincoln University. Despite some player movement over winter the number of morning men's side remained the same as last season.

The Christchurch Metro Cricket Association implemented a new model on how the various teams in the local competitions were to be ranked. This was based on similar models used in other sports around New Zealand and the world. Most grades were renamed except for President's and Cavaliers. The Premier grade was now the Premiership, while the rung immediately below saw the 2A Sabres now in the Championship and the weakened Cobras side dropping from 2B to 2C, now known as Division 2. The Buccaneers remained in Division 5 (formerly 3C) and the Phoenix were temporarily misplaced up a grade in Division 6 (the old 3D, rather than 4A where they were last year).

Promotion and relegation was also introduced, creating quite a shake-up by season's end. In the morning grades teams now fight for survival or elevation based on their combined (weighted) performances across the two-day, one-day and Twenty20 formats.

As with previous seasons we have had a large complement of English players join us. At one stage we had as many as eight overseas amateurs available and competing for positions within the morning sides. These guys brought an extra element to the club, not to mention the colourful end-of-day conversations back at the pavilion.

After they became our permanent home grounds last season, the Hagley Corner pitches have since gone from strength to strength. Having St Albans teams playing side-by-side there is fantastic, especially as teams who finish early are able to provide support to their fellow clubmates. The Premier men made the No. 5 ground their own, dominating to such an extent that it was nigh on impossible for visiting sides to win there. Our relationship with Christ's College to use their grounds for practice has also continued.

For the first time in many years rain did not have any significant impact on the start of the season. Across the entire season only one Saturday was completely washed out, while another rain-affected day still managed to at least get morning grade men's games completed.

In the first half of the season the Premier and Sabres men qualified for the knockout stages in their respective one-day competitions, though the latter failed to progress any further upon facing the runaway grade leaders. However, the Premiers romped into the final, where they overcame East Christchurch Shirley in a tough, low-scoring affair to become the first side to win 10 Christchurch Premier men's titles. At the Christmas break the Buccaneers were clear grade leaders with several other afternoon sides also keeping themselves in contention.

In the New Year the Premier men qualified for the National Club Championships after completing comfortable wins over Mid Canterbury representatives Lauriston and Canterbury Country's Cheviot in the Canterbury regional playoffs.

In the morning grade Twenty20 competitions only the Premier men came away with silverware, impressively going unbeaten in nine games. Unfortunately, the Sabres fell in the semis again despite being second qualifiers, while the Cobras' campaign never really got going to begin with.

No silverware was forthcoming for any of the morning grades in their respective two-day competitions, with the Premier men again the best performers, frustratingly missing out by just 6.75 points (less than the value of an outright result).

After promising early signs the Presidents BBBBs growing injury list started to become a factor, although they remained in contention to the very last. Sadly, they lost their final round-robin game when a share of the title was on the line. They ended an otherwise successful season with a whimper, losing all three games in the top-four section.

The Cavaliers Twenty20 Fozzies followed a similar pattern, staying in the hunt right to the very end, only to lose their last game in the main competition and miss out on a share of the spoils.

The Buccaneers however learnt from their harrowing experience of last season, where they choked away a competition lead in the final weeks. This time they held on, earning victories in a number of scrappy, low-scoring tussles to surge ahead. They finished four wins clear of second place, winning the club's first title in this grade in 10 years.

Rounding out the season in April, Saints sadly fell at the final hurdle after topping the round-robin in the National Club Championships. Congratulations anyway guys!

This season brought about a noticeable increase in teams defaulting throughout the grades, particularly the afternoon men's competitions. Unfortunately, even Division 2 was not immune, a level where such an issue simply should not crop up. While not a new problem, this season it became more prominent as a greater number of cricketers are now working on Saturdays, not to mention the absences caused by weddings, family gatherings, concerts, wine and food festivals.

For our club the Phoenix and Super Swingers were the worst offenders, defaulting a whopping five games each, while the Cobras and Fozzies both defaulted once. Both the latter two sides were also defaulted to at some point during the season as well.

How do we resolve this? Where do we find sufficient players who are willing to give up an entire day (or at least an afternoon) in an ever-changing, time-poor world? With so much else on how does cricket fit in? The absolute minimum number of players allowable to proceed with a legal game is six (T20) and seven (all other grades), but even then it doesn't make for a particularly enjoyable time in the field. The Phoenix is the best example of this quandary. They've regularly fielded anywhere between seven and 10 players over the past few seasons, requiring an incredible number of friends and friend-of-friends to be roped in, just to keep the team afloat. This approach doesn't address the central problem, it only temporarily keeps it at bay.

So how should a club like St Albans go about it? While the typical recruitment method is to go through the traditional cricketing schools, targeting school leavers, there also needs to be some thinking outside of the box. Cricket is not just a sport for the talented under-20s; it should embrace everyone of all shapes, sizes, ages and abilities. Recruitment is an important aspect of any club and, while the morning grades are important, so too are the afternoon sides who help fill the gaps for them when they encounter injuries, sicknesses or weddings.

Picking the brains of every member of a club should bring a plethora of players out from the proverbial woodwork. In a time of dire need the Phoenix did just this, gaining nine part-time players after current team members were asked if they knew anyone who wanted to play. Actively seeking and embracing part-time newcomers is a better alternative to not having a team to play in at all. This is all the more important when it comes to sides which form the base of the club, from which others teams draw from when they themselves are short.

Members Who Have Left

A number of players either just visit for a single-season stint, choose to switch clubs, have work or family commitments or just disappear altogether. Those in italics were kind enough to help out as fill-ins on the odd occasion. Last year's members who left the club included:

Team Summaries:

Premier - captained by Ben Langrope. Yet another strong season dominating the Christchurch Metro competition, built on having a largely unchanged squad from last year. From this stable platform the team went on to claim silverware in two out of the three competitions they entered. After two losses in November the side remained unbeaten through to the end of the season.

Championship Sabres - captained by Sam Flavell. Despite being bolstered by several English amateurs, not having a consistent side from week to week meant they had a jarringly up-and-down season. They had a number of missed opportunities - not least of which were three tied games - and were unable to push beyond having two semi-final appearances to show for their efforts.

Division 2 Cobras - captained by Amandeep Singh and Jonathan Hanson. The Cobras sorely missed the bulk of last year’s playing group. The use of 36 players during the season meant the team battled to field a consistent playing XI every game, leaving them to contemplate “if only” come season’s end.

Division 5 Buccaneers - captained by Jono Hamilton. The strength of numbers in the squad meant that despite providing up to between six and 10 players to other sides most weeks, they were still able to comfortably achieve their goal of winning their grade.

Division 6 & 7 Phoenix - captained by Kristin Pagan. The use of over 40 players meant that it was yet another frustrating season, the fifth in a row where personnel shortages materially impacted on their enjoyment and chances. Two wins - the first coming in the opening game, ably assisted by eight Division 2 players and a Buccaneer - in 19 games plus five defaults does not make for good reading.

President's Grade BBBBs - captained by Scott Mason. Despite not winning any silverware it was another very solid summer by these veteran campaigners. However, when dealing with aging bodies sometimes the mind may be willing but the body is not. Their season ended with five straight wins followed by four consecutive losses.

Cavaliers Twenty20 Grade Super Swingers - captained by Sam Price. A quiet side from the afternoon grades ... sometimes too quiet. They had a torrid season with just four wins. Also, like the Phoenix, sadly they had more than their fair share of defaults. There were still some individual highlights to enjoy however.

Cavaliers Twenty20 Grade Fozzies - captained by Kade Atkinson. They found the going slightly tougher than last year, but still performed capably. They won more than they lost and after two grade splits they ended up a creditable second in the top section. The captain once again led from the front with some dazzling contributions.

Representative Players

Tyler Lortan became the 64th St Albans men's player to represent Canterbury, when he played for the Kings T20 Super Smash side. Well done to the following who were selected for higher honours:

Melhuish Shield

We again mixed our combinations for this twin-team competition, with none of last year’s pairings remaining intact. The Division 5 Buccaneers and President’s BBBBs were right on track to win it heading into March, but a fallow last month (two wins from eight games) left them back in equal sixth, four wins shy of the winners from Old Boys Collegians. Similar to last’s years pre-season picks, hindsight is 20/20; the optimal pairing not chosen turned out to be the Premiers and Buccaneers, who together won 35 and lost just six games. The full standings are listed in the points table section later in this book.

Summary

This was my first season as the men’s club captain, filling the shoes vacated by the very capable Clem Gibbens. It’s a been steep learning curve, with a lot of work involved in the role that isn’t seen by the rest of the club. Thank you Clem for doing such a fantastic job and I look forward to picking your brains again at some point. I’m also grateful for the help provided by many throughout the season.

This season has been a middling one for the men’s side of the club with three pieces of silverware won by two different teams. It was a season in which the growth and depth of the club was curtailed somewhat, due to the competitive nature of the other sports clubs within Christchurch.

We may be a strong club at the present time but must ensure that we have player growth across all grades. This means asking the hard questions that may not want to be thought of, let alone acted upon. We pride ourselves on the fact that we have three morning and five afternoon grade sides, however without adequate recruitment we may have to sacrifice some depth in order to maintain the strength.

Obviously, this is not the path we wish to ever go down, so we must be proactive now. If you know anyone you think may be interested in playing cricket socially, start the discussion now!

Winter well everyone, enjoy your off-season pursuits and let’s make the 2019/20 season an all-round success up and down the club.

Kris Pagan

Our overseas professionals Dylan Budge (left) and Tyler Lortan. Dylan made his international debut for Scotland during our winter before the season. Tyler was the club’s top run scorer and made his Canterbury debut with the Kings T20 side.

Women's Club Captain's Report

This season got off to a very rocky start. Pre-season training failed to get going and the Premier coach arrived several weeks after the season began, plus there were two season-ending injuries before we even played a match.

Although we had a talented overseas recruit and a full Premier squad, the numbers were critically low in the youth and junior grades. It looked like it might all crumble away.

However, the tide turned at the right time. Against the odds the Premiers won their opening match, despite playing short. Then a deal was brokered with North West Women's Cricket to assure all our youth and junior players had teams to play in. Finally, the Artificial Maidens assured us they were confident of fielding a full squad for the entire season. Huzzah!

With my right-hand assistant Tegan Weston out for the season with a blown knee, not only had we lost a Premier regular but also our junior convener. Thankfully, the relationship with North West proved a blessing and all of our players that turned out for them enjoyed excellent support. They also experienced considerable success, with the two North West sides finishing tied for first in the Under-17s grade at the end of the season. Furthermore, North West provided support for our Premier side, resulting in a far more stable unit and far fewer last-minute scrambles for extra players required.

The presence of extra players at training also helped to raise the standard of the team trainings, which have often suffered from low turnouts in the past.

As many as six North West girls were to make their Premier debuts during the season, with all of them contributing. In particular, thank you to Eliza McIntosh, who became a regular member of the side, showing great potential with bat and ball. I can only hope that we can continue to work with North West towards a closer relationship in future seasons.

Team Summaries

Premier - The team continues to make good progress as our young squad matures. The addition of overseas wicket-keeper/bat Ellie Stanley provided some good stability in our top order until injury cut her season short in January. It is important that we continue to seek overseas players as they add far more than just their skills to the mix.

The win column had a few more ticks in it than last year but more importantly the team was far more consistent and competitive throughout the season. There were more close matches, far fewer capitulations and belief in the team's ability to compete grew.

While we managed just three wins from nine 50-over matches the team did beat each of the other three sides in the competition; in a further two matches we went down by just one wicket. While we finished in fourth place, just six points separated us from second.

The change from a six-a-side to an eight-a-side format in the Kirsty Bond Series was a big improvement over previous years and helped us produce our best showing: five wins from 12 matches. We recorded wins against all three other sides and finished third. Some of our most thrilling matches of the season came during this competition.

The Twenty20 competition was reduced to just one round of three matches and unfortunately we failed to register a win here, though we did improve as we went on.

Twenty20 Artificial Maidens - True to their promise at the start of the season the Maidens were able to field a fairly stable team all season. Co-captain Jo Bond led from the front with an outstanding all-round season to steer them to a grade victory.

This team continues to blaze a trail, being by far the most successful afternoon grade team in the club. They've now racked up 10 titles since the core of the team was formed in the late '90s.

I refer you to the bar report to see what success for this team means to the club finances!

Summary

I must thank all those parents, volunteers and coaches that assisted throughout the season. Thanks to Dylan Budge and Tyler Lortan for their work with the Premiers and to Nick Glennie for all his efforts liaising with North West.

Congratulations to all the players for a good season, in particular the Artificial Maidens for their grade win and to those players who achieved higher honours through the season.

The Premier team continues to suffer from a lack of a Saturday team manager. While I was able to attend some morning sessions early in the season that is not the same as having a dedicated coach/manager on the sideline.

My own Saturday commitments are not compatible with doing this on an ongoing basis and, as such, the club must seek out the right person for this important role for the coming season and beyond if the team is to progress.

As for the role of women's club captain, my other coaching commitments make it impractical for me to continue in this position in the coming season. It is also likely that the job description will be considerably different as we explore our relationship with North West.

I have enjoyed my time in the role and will of course continue to follow the success of the teams and players in the future.

Ryan Thomas

Above left: Greg Dawson was chosen in the Metro Premier team of the year for an unprecedented sixth time on the back of a fourth 600-run season in a row.

Above right: Aaron Johnstone became the first St Albans player to take 50 Premier wicket-keeping dismissals in a season.

Top Individual Performances

There were fewer days affected by the weather this season, however the number of standout individual contributions was still on the low side, with only two centuries and no six-fors registered before Christmas. By summer's end those figures had climbed to eight and five, respectively.

Amy Satterthwaite was first to three figures in week two, scoring her ninth Premier century (and 10th overall). She now sits just one off the Premier women's record held by Nicola Wilson. It was her first Saints ton in four seasons, though it was only her eighth innings in that time.

Greg Dawson was the only multiple century-maker this season, performing the rare feat of making Premier hundreds in consecutive games. Unusually, he scored second-innings ducks in both matches. Like Amy, he too has joined the upper echelons of Premier batsmen with his sixth and seventh tons, lifting him to fifth on the all-time list.

Jack Gillon landed top spot on the batting leaderboard in only his second game for the club, scoring an unbeaten 163 out of a total of 228 in a remarkable chase, earning the Division 7 Phoenix a one-wicket victory against the Scots Raiders at Spreydon Domain. It is the highest innings by a Saints player in nearly four seasons and the best by an afternoon grade batsman since James Alabaster made 194 for fourth grade in 2005/06. Dan Sharples brought up his maiden ton after six seasons with the club, raising three figures in his 69th game (60th for Premiers). Dean Read's second century for the BBBBs came a whopping 17 years after his first, playing more than 265 games and scoring 29 fifties in that time.

Robbie Polson became the first Saints player to hit two Twenty20 tons. Joel Turner's 101 was his fifth century, with all bar one coming for the Buccaneers side. As many as four batsmen fell in the nervous nineties, with two still hunting their maiden centuries: Natalie Cox (with a Saints career-high 90 in her 105th Premier game and 141st for the club) and Tyler Lortan (his third score in the 90s in two seasons). Sam Flavell was the closest to three figures without getting there, being caught on the boundary for 98 for the Championship Sabres against Riccarton.

James Tapper topped the bowling charts, sealing the Nos. 1 and 2 spots on the leaderboard after a brilliant February weekend. Completing a two-dayer on the Saturday, he rolled Sydenham with 7-21 off 15 overs before returning to start a new two-dayer on the Sunday, cleaning up Lancaster Park with figures of 7-55 off 18 overs. It is the first time a bowler has taken both the top two spots since Stephen Cunis in 2006/07, the first instance of two seven-fors in a season since Michael Davidson in 2013/14 and the first in consecutive games since Duncan Anderson for the 2As in 2008/09.

The best figures recorded in the afternoon men's grades came from Abe MacDougall (5-14 for the Division 5 Buccaneers against Southern Districts) and the best women's bowling performance was by Katie Morris (4-1 for the Premier women v Lancaster Park).

Matt Holstein's 7-62 against Riccarton is his fourth six-wicket bag for the club. The remaining two bowlers on the list were taking their maiden six-fors: in the final game of the season Hamish McLean surpassed his previous best of 5-19 against East Christchurch Shirley last season; and Matthew Kendall achieved his in his first season with the club.

Matt Holstein also took the only two ten-wicket bags of the season. He followed up his 10-98 off 32 overs against Riccarton with 10-57 off 30 overs against Old Boys Collegians just two games later. It is the first time a bowler has taken two such big hauls in a season since Glen Bellam did so for fifth grade 24 years ago. Matt's previous best match figures were 9-50 off 35 overs against Marist-Harewood nine years ago.

Both of this season's hat-tricks were taken by Scott Mason, taking his career tally up to an extraordinary eight. He took them in consecutive games for the President's BBBBs and matches the two he took last year, the first known instance of the feat being done in consecutive seasons.

Reid Gibbens was the only player to score a fifty and take a four-for in the same game, hitting 58 off 36 balls and taking 4-29 off 12.2 overs on day two of a tied Championship game against Sumner.

A strong pre-season squad assembled at Lincoln mid-August, which created real excitement for what the forthcoming season had in store. We retained almost the exact same squad which picked up two of the three trophies available the previous year - including the reinstatement of pro Tyler (LBW) Lortan - and were bolstered by the services of Scottish international Dylan Budge. With the perfect blend of experience and youth, the bar was set very high, with an expectation that we would pick up silverware and have a real shot at being the best club side in the country.

Two-day Competition

Looking to defend our title from the previous season (where we set a very high standard by beating all but one team outright), the campaign began with a one-off fixture in early October, where we drew perennial wooden-spooners Marist-Harewood at the "fortress" that is Hagley 5. Inserted on a green surface, Greg (Coach) Dawson jumped out of the gates in his usual pre-Christmas manner scoring 63, helping us to a competitive 200. We came out firing to bowl Marist out for 110, with Matt (Rooster) Holstein putting shivers in the tail with 4-48. This left us in a great position for day two; however, there was no play due to rain, an unlucky start to the campaign missing out on maximum points against a lesser-fancied side.

The next round wasn't until December (at the completion of the one-day round robin), where we played East Christchurch Shirley at the Fortress. We could only muster 177 but again our seamers applied serious pressure, with Easts narrowly avoiding the follow-on, succumbing for 78. A classy 76 from Lortan led a positive second innings, leaving Easts requiring 258 for victory. At one stage they were 150/3 with 30 overs remaining, however the lads held their nerve to get the required breakthroughs, ending up victors by 59 runs. Impressive figures by Harper (4-36 to go with his first innings 4-25) and Holstein (3-16 off 19 overs) set up a good, tough win.

We then rolled Syds for 120, with Dan Sharples starring with 5-14. A magnificent 100 not out by Dawson helped steer us through to 230/6 at stumps. He was on 88 with two balls remaining and surprised even himself by managing to strike consecutive sixes to cap a dominant first day and send the boys into frenzy on the sideline. Stand-in captain James Tapper declared to put the acid on Syds, taking it upon himself to lead via performance; he returned the staggering figures of 7-21 off 15 overs. The boys had to toil hard after being met with some stubborn resistance, with the innings lasting 73 overs for only 137 runs. The 28 required for outright victory was knocked off in six overs for the loss of one wicket.

The very next day the lads faced an in-form Lancaster Park side. Tapper was again in charge, picking up where he left off the day before to record back-to-back seven-fors. After bowling LP out for 154 we successfully batted out the remaining 45 overs in the day, with Dawson (121) bringing up his second ton in as many matches. We carried on batting on day two with a declaration coming at 312/8, with James (Chelsea) O'Gorman ending up with 72. Our bowlers were met with much resistance from LP and it took 75 overs to finally knock them over for 227. This left us what seemed a straightforward chase of 69 in 15 overs, however LP's dangerous bowling attack had other ideas. We were left reeling at 55/8 with 11 balls left, but managed to negotiate the remaining deliveries to earn a draw.

Back at the fortress against Riccarton, our seamers struggled to make early inroads on a flat track. This paved the way for Holstein to bowl a long and successful spell of 7-62 off 21 overs as Riccs ended up with 212. We recovered from a shaky start to get through to the end of the day, albeit still behind with one wicket left. After we were dismissed for 185 early on day two Riccs batted well, if slowly, eventually declaring at 197/9 after 68 overs. Holstein (3-36) completed his 10-for for the match. We were left with the tough task of chasing 224 in 33 overs and got off to a poor start at 3/3. A great knock of 76 by Harper gave us an outside chance of forcing a victory. However, Riccarton's tactics turned negative, making boundaries difficult to come by, with stalemate forced at 170/8.

In desperate need of a big performance, the week's weather wasn't great and we were greeted with a wet pitch at Burnside. We restricted them to 114 after putting them in and were well set at stumps, 37 ahead on the back of a 70 from Lortan. However, day two was cancelled due to tragic events that occurred at the Christchurch mosque on the Friday afternoon.

With no real chance of winning the title now we aimed to round out the season with a strong performance against Old Boys Collegians back at the fortress. We rolled OBC for 141, with "Rooster" crowing again with 5-32 off 19 overs. With two set batsmen at the crease overnight we carried on batting on day two. Sharples (109 not out off 87 balls) and Langrope (61 not out off 33) produced a dashing partnership of 144 in just 14 overs before we finally declared on 312. Holstein claimed another five victims to complete another 10-for as we routed OBC by an innings and 54 runs.

It was a great way to cap a fantastic season. We ended up second, just over seven points behind winners Lancaster Park. However we were left thinking of a few games where, with a touch more luck, we could have easily been holding the two-day trophy for the second year in a row.

One-day Competition

This was a key target for the side given it had been a trophy that had eluded us for a few years; also because the winner would progress to the next stage of qualifying for the national club champs in Auckland.

Our campaign started against Easts at the Birdcage (Burwood Park), where they crashed to 153 after being 120/2 at one stage. The chase got off to a great start, however we fell away to 83/7. A crucial partnership between Langrope and Tapper lifted the team to 131 before the cool head of Aaron Johnstone saw the team home by two wickets. We subsequently found out that Easts had used a lower-grade ball; lucky the result was what it was.

We dispatched Marist at Redwood Park, chasing down their 128 in just 23, though we did it a little rough, losing six wickets along the way. We posted a competitive 236 against Burnside on Hagley Oval, with fifties to James Southby and Langrope. The game was in the balance throughout the chase, until it came down to 20 runs needed with one wicket left. Their batsmen held their nerves to get across the line with two balls left.

We bounced back quickly against Syds, with Dawson (71 not out) leading a comfortable chase of 147 to run out winners by eight wickets with 23 overs remaining. We then easily accounted for Riccarton by six wickets. Our strongest batting line-up of the season could only manage 182 against Lancaster Park on Hagley Oval. On a good wicket this total simply wasn't enough and LP cruised home with six wickets and five overs in hand.

We then faced OBC in the final round at the fortress, looking to secure a semi-final spot with a victory. We racked up an imposing total of 265/6 on the back of 94 from Lortan and 80 from O'Gorman. The bowlers then made light work of the OBC batting line-up, knocking them over for 85. This left us in third place on the table and set to face off against the same team that beat us in last year's semi-final (Burnside).

A much hyped semi became a bit of an anti-climax, as we rolled Burnside for 69. Bailen Thatcher took three wickets and was well supported by the other "nasty fasties". The run chase was no issue, as we romped to victory inside 13 overs. An early day with us being home by 2pm!

We got to host Easts at the fortress in the final, thanks to them upsetting LP in the other semi. The bowlers did a great job restricting their scoring options and Easts could only muster 140/9 off 50 overs. Holstein was at it again, with the staggering figures of 2-9 off 10 overs. We got off to a rocky start in reply, being 21/2. "LBW" (man of the match) managed to use his bat for once to post a crucial 63. With support from everyone at the other end, we got over the line with four wickets and seven overs to spare. A great team effort on the day and throughout the campaign saw us emerge as champions. We also progressed to the next stage, where we successfully became the Canterbury representative at the club champs.

Twenty20 Competition

The format changed from the previous season with a round robin against every other Premier side replacing the pool system. We started the competition with a big target on our back due to going through last season's campaign unbeaten. However, this didn't have any bearing on results and we managed to repeat the feat to win back-to-back titles.

Highlights throughout the year include: a stellar five-wicket bag from Clem (Carcass) Gibbens against Easts, which included the dismissals of two current Canterbury players; a second T20 hundred for Robbie (Bully) Polson against Marist, where the boys posted a mammoth total of 233; two 50s for Lortan; but probably the most impressive highlight came from Holstein, who bowled 24 overs without conceding a single boundary!

As top qualifier, we hosted the semi-final against a strong Burnside line-up. We batted first and posted a par score of 111. They got off to a flyer but thanks to some partnership bowling and rock-solid fielding we bowled them out for 94. Langrope (4-16 off four) was the pick of the bowlers.

We hosted the final against Lancaster Park on Waitangi Day. Some smart batting by the middle order got us to a competitive 129. The bowlers then made this a no-contest with only one conceding more than five runs per over, rolling LP for 78. Harper was player of the final with 3-10 and 31 not out. The victory maintained our two-season unbeaten run in T20 games.

Movember Campaign

An off-field highlight for the squad was a very successful Movember campaign, where we raised over $13,000 for the foundation (the third highest amount by any Kiwi organisation). James Tapper came up with the idea as a show of support for our man Dan Sharples, who was diagnosed with testicular cancer and underwent rigorous chemotherapy; it was the least we could do. To show the character of Dan and his immense positivity towards the situation, he still played cricket throughout his treatment and his performances were inspiring. We were extremely happy to report that Dan's treatment was successful. As a support to him the team/club is likely to run a further campaign, which is a small gesture compared to what Dan has been through. On behalf of the squad we thank everyone that donated to the great cause and showed support for a true St Albans hero going through a tough time.

Summary

It was a very successful year for the team, with the goal of being the first side to win all three trophies in one season falling short by a small margin. This year truly has been a team effort that we can all be very proud of, as everyone can say they stood up and performed at the times when needed.

Congratulations to everyone who made their Premier debut; to Tyler Lortan for making his Canterbury Kings debut; to the players that were involved in other rep cricket or are involved in winter programmes; and to Matt Holstein, who was deservedly named overall club player of the year.

Thanks to Nicola Blue for her time again this year as our scorer; to Greg Dawson, who again gave his time to the team as coach; to Dylan Budge and all the overseas players; and to the committee for supporting the team with sponsorship to assist us with clothing and the Auckland trip.

Lastly, I would like to thank everyone for their commitment to the team and dedication to ensuring success. As identified early on, this year could become the memorable season that we would talk about. It was important to me as captain that we reached those heights and I'm truly proud that we achieved as much as we did: two titles, two seconds and only losing three games all season. Again, the bar is set high for next year, however there is no reason why we cannot surpass that. I look forward to next year with great excitement and wish everyone well for the winter.

Ben Langrope

2018/19 National Club Cricket Championships

St Albans qualified for their seventh national club championships, held at the Cornwall Cricket Club in Auckland on April 2-7. After winning the Christchurch Metro one-day competition in December, they then had to overcome the competition winners from Mid Canterbury (Lauriston) and Canterbury Country (Cheviot) in regional playoffs in January.

The full team was: Ben Langrope (captain), Greg Dawson, Reid Gibbens, Jack Harper, Matt Holstein, Aaron Johnstone, Tyler Lortan, James O’Gorman, Robbie Polson, Dan Sharples, James Southby, William Southby, James Tapper and Bailen Thatcher with Nicola Blue (scorer).

Despite there being a three-year gap back to the side’s last appearance in Auckland, as many as nine of the 2016 tournament squad were returning for another appearance, plus two others (Jack Harper with Albion in 2014, 2015 and 2017 and Dan Sharples with Kaikorai in 2016) had also been there before. The others with multiple nationals under their belt were: Johnstone (sixth tournament), Langrope (fifth), Holstein and O’Gorman (fourth), Dawson and the Southby brothers (third) and Polson and Tapper (second).

With a combined 34 previous appearances it was the most experienced field ever assembled, with three of the entrants being multiple former winners (sharing nine national titles between them). Only defending champions Napier Technical Old Boys (Central Districts) were returning from last year’s event, with the other regions being represented by: Parnell (Auckland), Greerton (Northern Districts - Tauranga), Green Island (Otago - Dunedin) and Eastern Suburbs (Wellington).

Day 1 - Saints overcame Eastern Suburbs in a one-wicket thriller with eight balls to spare to get their campaign underway. The Wellington side, which featured as many as seven current or former first-class players, were sitting pretty at 160/4 with 14 overs remaining but Tapper, Holstein and Sharples put the squeeze on, taking 2-6 in the next five overs and only conceded four-an-over to the end of the innings. Tapper’s 4-27 off 10 were his best club champs figures and helped keep Easts to a chaseable 216. Sharples smashed five sixes in a manic 13-ball burst, bringing up a 50-run opening stand inside seven overs. He departed for a 30-ball 53 but opening partner Dawson took over, ticking along for a measured 61. Needing 45 to win with six wickets in hand and more than 17 overs remaining it looked a doddle, but Dawson’s departure sparked a trickle of wickets. Harper (36) took them halfway home but when the final pair came together we still needed four with 16 balls left. Johnstone sealed the win with a nurdle through point for two to spare any blushes.

Day 2 - The team made it two-from-two with a much more polished performance, routing local side Parnell by 110 runs. Sharples dominated up front again with a 59-ball 54. After a little top-order wobble Polson (a club champs best of 82) anchored stands of 90 with Langrope (a fourth club champs fifty) and a better-than-run-a-ball 76 with Harper (33 not out) for the fifth and sixth wickets respectively, to get Saints to a formidable 256/6 on the No. 1 ground. Parnell's chase was in tatters at 66/5 in the 19th over, after debutant Reid Gibbens had made three incisive blows with the new ball. With drizzle in the air the Saints attack forged on, sharing around the wickets to wrap up the innings for just 146 inside 37 overs, securing our fourth largest win in Auckland tournaments.

Day 3 - In a battle of two unbeaten sides it was Saints who prevailed by 27 runs to jump to the top of the standings, defeating Napier Technical Old Boys in an exciting encounter on the smallest top-level club ground in the country. A rapid start came courtesy of another Sharples fifty (this time off 35 balls), adding 106 for the first wicket at more than seven-an-over with Dawson, who made his second fifty of the week. The pair fell in quick succession and thereafter the bid for a massive total gradually fell away. Five other batsmen made between 23 and 42 in good time but no partnership lasted beyond eight overs. Saints were bowled out in the 46th over for 290; it was a total which included 18 sixes, but against such a formidable line-up represented barely a par score. There was cause for concern as NTOB smashed 60 in the first 25 deliveries of the chase, but Thatcher and Harper snared five wickets between them before the total reached three figures, firmly snatching back control. The Napier side continue to rollick along at sevens but when Holstein cleaned up danger man Jesse Ryder at 175/7 at the halfway mark, that should've been that. The tail fought gamely to bring the equation down to 28 needed off 20 before a direct hit from Lortan sealed the result. It was the fifth club champs in a row Saints had won their opening three games.

Day 4 - Thatcher made the most of the new ball after Saints were asked to bowl first, tearing into the Green Island top order with a spell of 4-22 off five. A 145-run stand for the fifth wicket swung the game right back into the Dunedin side's favour before Thatcher returned to claim his fifth victim. His haul was only the third time a Saints bowler had taken a five-for in 38 games in Auckland. Saints rotated their bowlers frequently to keep the brakes on in the final dozen overs, conceding only a run-a-ball despite Green Island having a set batsman and plenty of wickets in hand. The target of 270 was nothing to be sniffed at however, given it was nearly 50 runs greater than Saints had ever successfully chased up there before. The Sharples-Dawson combo came up trumps at the top once again, adding 95 in 13 overs before Sharples fell for his fourth straight innings between 50 and 54. Lortan was the backbone of the remainder of the chase, sharing in a number of handy partnerships along the way. Holstein deposited a six over long-on to wrap up a four-wicket win with nine balls to spare. Lortan remained unbeaten on 94 - the third highest knock by a Saints batsman in Auckland - an innings which guided the team into a fifth straight final with a round to spare.

Day 5 - With the squad weary after four consecutive playing days and already safely into Sunday's final, having the weather make a severe turn for the worse on the final round-robin day was not an unwelcome sight. Heavy overnight rain, which persisted into the morning, forced an early afternoon abandonment to their game against bottom side Greerton. The outcome meant they would face a rematch with Napier Technical Old Boys in the final.

Final - Napier Tech won an important toss, electing to send Saints in. Sharples looked threatening once again, belting 16 off the opening over, but he only added two more before falling for his first sub-fifty score of the week. From a score of 38 in the sixth over, the innings went into freefall, never to recover. Dawson's 19 was the top score of the innings, with no partnerships lasting beyond six overs or 16 runs. Saints were bowled out for 96 in just the 35th over, leaving enough time for 14 overs of the chase to be bowled by the shell-shocked team prior to the lunch break. Needing plenty of cheap breakthroughs in a hurry, only a couple were forthcoming before the interval. Holstein took 2-13 off a full 10-over spell to draw things out but Napier Tech remained calm to steadily tick off the remaining runs. They reached the target five down in the 35th over to secure their third national title and second on the bounce.

The week followed an all-too-familiar pattern: getting out of the gates on fire, but running out of puff just as the finishing line comes into view. The final was only the sixth loss in their last 28 Auckland games, but frustratingly four of these have come in finals. With five second-placings in seven appearances, St Albans holds a bittersweet claim to being the best club side in the country not to have snared the major prize.

Above: BBBBs opener Mark Hampton (right) guest starred in a game for the Championship Sabres in November. Seen here next to wicket-keeper Tom Flavell (33 years his junior), "Hampo" last played a morning grade game in 1995. He went on to score 41 in an innings where only one other player reached double figures.

Below left: Clem Gibbens collected 30 scalps for the seventh year in a row, but ended up becalmed on 299 Saints career wickets for the final six weeks of the season (during which period he also took time out to get married).

Below right: Leg-spinner Matt Kendall joined us in the New Year, taking wickets with his first and fourth balls on debut for the Sabres and later took 6-32 for the Cobras.

The season was one of new beginnings in many ways for the Sabres, following such a successful 2017/18 campaign. A change of captain coupled with the loss of key members from last year, plus an influx of younger players made for some quick lessons to be learned by all.

An off-season restructure saw the Senior A grade cease to exist, with the better sides merging with the 2As to form the new Championship grade. This strengthened the competition, with many sides coming in with the specific aim to push for promotion to Premier cricket.

We began our campaign with a single two-day game against East Christchurch Shirley, which was spoiled by a day two washout after being nicely poised.

Following this we jumped into the one-day competition with a nerve-rattler on Hagley 4. Chasing Sumner's 222 we lost regular top-order wickets but were kept in the game thanks to a ridiculous number of dropped chances by the opposition. However, things looked bleak when 47 runs were still required as our final pair came together. A classy, aggressive knock from experienced tail-ender Hamish Williams (34 not out) took it down to the wire before No. 11 Manpreet Singh played a sumptuous cut shot straight to gully ... where another chance went down. The pair scrambled a single for an amazing one-wicket win off the final ball. We followed this result up with a convincing win over Lancaster Park, before we hit our roughest patch of the season. Three straight losses to Burnside West University, Heathcote and Merivale-Papanui left us searching for answers and must-win games in the final two rounds.

Hungry to right the wrongs of the previous weeks, we got off to a blinder with Reid Gibbens taking two wickets in the opening over of the day as part of a tone-setting spell of 3-19 which put Riccarton on the back foot from the off. Though the game dragged out longer than desired, we eventually completed a relatively comfortable three-wicket win to put us back on the right path. A big performance with the ball from Sam Kearns (4-28 off nine overs) helped restrict Easts to 170 and a confident batting display, led by Will Southby's 51, saw this chased down with ease by six wickets. Our spot as the fourth-placed qualifier in the semi-finals had been booked.

We found ourselves facing a daunting task at the picturesque Heathcote Domain, coming up against the competition's runaway leaders who had earnt a bonus point win in every round-robin game. Sadly, the view was about the only highlight of the day. Heathcote set us a solid target of 258 on the smallish ground, but a comprehensive bowling display by the home side stifled any attempts at a successful run chase and we were dismissed for 132.

The final game before the Christmas break was a rather tense and controversial two-day match against Lancaster Park, which ended in a somewhat ridiculous draw. A wonderful first innings spell of 4-34 off 14 from James Brehaut helped restrict LP to 172, however a poor innings with the bat left us facing a deficit of 46 despite Ryan James' accomplished knock of 60. A magnificent display with the ball from Reid Gibbens (5-23 off 18) put us in with a shot, keeping the target down to a manageable 168. As wickets fell our innings oscillated between pushing for the outright win and shutting up shop. The game culminated in a tense final over of play: nine wickets down, we needed 12 to win. We got it down to four required off the last ball but only managed two so, in the end, neither side collected any outright points.

Twenty20 action greeted us after the break ... and quite a return to action it was. With a severely weakened line-up we scrapped our way to 110 against Sumner on the vast Hagley 4, before producing an outstanding effort in the field. Thanks to twin leggies Sam Kearns and debutant Matt Kendall (3-27 off eight overs between them) we had them on the ropes at 49/6. But due to some smart lower-order batting and us fielding the final 14 overs with only 10 men, the game still went to the wire. With scores level on the final ball Ronan Pithie was off line but managed to strangle the batsman down the leg side to earn a remarkable tie. Little did we know at that point the day was somehow going to get even crazier. Another superb team performance in the field helped us restrict Lancaster Park to just 90 in the afternoon game on the same pitch. This time off-spinning opening bowler Chris Morrison was the star with 3-21 off four. We made heavy weather of the chase though, with Tom Flavell (39) playing a mature lone hand to keep us in the game as wickets tumbled at the other end. No. 11 Matt Kendall arrived at the crease with two required off the final ball. He squirted it into the covers for a quick single before a cheeky second was stolen after the keeper failed to collect the throw cleanly. Appeals for a run out at the other end were turned down and pandemonium ensued as we had snuck over the line by the skin of our teeth.

We then headed into a game with Riccarton, graced once again by the mercurial Pom Josh Ballantine-Dykes, who jumped in for a few games whilst visiting the country. Riccarton posted a decent 134/7, and in reply we got off to a good start thanks to Tom Flavell's 49. However, things tightened up heading into the second half of our chase, leaving us needing 19 off the final two overs. We could only manage 18 for a second tie within the space of six days.

Two losses to Heathcote and Merivale-Papanui left us in the same predicament as in the one-dayers; needing to win our final two games to ensure semi-final qualification. We comprehensively beat Burnside after restricting them to 85 (Matt Kendall taking 4-18 off his four) and chased it down with ease. Alex Moore then spearheaded the attack against Easts, taking 3-13 off his four, restricting them to just 98 off their 20 overs. It was never going to be enough on a flat Burwood 1 and we knocked off the runs in blistering fashion, barely needing half the overs and without the loss of a wicket. We were once again semi-final bound.

In the Thursday evening semi we bowled first on the Nursery ground, restricting Lancaster Park to a total of 119, which we were satisfied with. Unfortunately a slow start with the bat, coupled with the loss of early wickets, had us behind the eight-ball for a decent chunk of the chase. The middle order kept us in with a fighter's chance heading into the final few overs but sadly, it was not to be. With six required off the final ball we could only manage a single, meaning our title defences in both white-ball formats had officially been killed off.

As ever, the run home consisted of two-dayers. A classy innings from Mikey Hill (78) had us in a good position with 236 on the board against Heathcote. We backed it up with a wonderful team effort in the field to bowl them out for only half our total with Clem Gibbens (3-39) starring with the ball. We enforced the follow-on but Heathcote provided much sterner resistance second time around, keeping us in the field for 88 tortuous overs before pulling the pin at 283/8. English left-arm quick James Brehaut's 19-over marathon with the ball was rewarded with figures of 4-53. This left us fewer than 20 overs to chase 166 against a top bowling line-up and we were forced to shut up shop to earn a draw after losing early wickets.

Playing away at the boutique St Leonard's Square, we restricted Sumner to 173, however could only manage 145 in reply. Seven wickets between the Gibbens brothers (and 12 for the match) was the cornerstone of an improved second innings effort, leaving us a highly gettable target of 166. We made another poor start in the chase before the all-English combination of Mikey Hill (37) and Chris Morrison (32) brought us back into contention. Once these two departed with 80 still needed and four wickets remaining, up stepped Reid Gibbens. He plundered 58 all around the ground in a terrific display of clean hitting to return us to the driver's seat. With victory in sight Reid fell and our inexperienced tail panicked, folding under pressure with only a handful of runs required. With scores level and ample time remaining a quick single was called for, but sharp work in the field led to a run out, resulting in our third tie in the space of six weeks - two of them coming against Sumner, to go with the one-wicket win in the season opener against them. We look forward to more fascinating encounters with them next year!

Eager to prove our worth after blowing the previous match, we posted a big first innings total of 281 against Riccarton, with current and former captains Sam Flavell (98) and Clem Gibbens (67) providing the bulk of the runs. We quickly enforced the follow-on after dismissing Riccs for 170 and made light work of their batsmen second time around as well. Two-day specialist Hamish McLean (4-28) helped restrict them to 112, leaving us a “huge” two required for victory, duly completing a 10-wicket win.

Rain spared our blushes against Burnside, after staring down a follow-on of our own after ending day one still 172 in arrears with only two wickets in hand. The season wound down against Merivale-Papanui, and with a weakened side fielded on day one, we were always on the back foot. We trailed by 84 going into the second innings but Chris Morrison saved his best until last to make a game of it. His superb 84, with strokes all around the ground, along with Mikey Hill’s 58, gave us a sniff with a lead of 121. It was not to be however, with MP knocking the target off with ease to end our campaign on a slight down note.

Reflecting on the season it was one with many ups and downs, although overall it was a positive step in the right direction for the side. For such a youthful team I thought we reached a level we can be content with and, having gained some crucial experience at second-grade level, I expect the core of this side to kick on and reach much greater heights next season. Every single player contributed throughout the summer and though I can’t mention everyone, I will single out a couple in particular. Reid Gibbens led the team all season long with ball in hand; he was a consistent wicket-taking presence and came on with the bat in the latter stages too. Mikey Hill, as the senior overseas player in our side, consistently set an excellent example with the bat, as well as regularly providing me with support when I needed it on the field.

It was an honour for me to take over as skipper from Clem Gibbens, who had done an excellent job over the previous six seasons; he certainly left me with big boots to fill. I would like to thank you as well Clem for your assistance as I developed into the role. It was a thoroughly enjoyable season from start to finish, and the young core within the side certainly points to a progressive and positive 2019/20 season ahead.

It was a tough season for the Cobras, a side in transition, with only one regular player common to the previous year and a mere five others who played at least one game across both seasons. Newcomer Amandeep Singh took over organising the side for much of the first half of the season.

With seven teams in the grade it meant for a disjointed season, with three-and-a-half playing days automatically shaved off due to the odd number of teams; this included the first fortnight as we began the season with a two-day bye.

The team suffered chastening defeats to the two strongest sides once we finally got underway. However, we bounced back with an encouraging win over Old Boys Collegians, holding our nerve by nine runs in a tight finish.

Losses in the next two rounds put the kibosh on our chances of reaching the semi-finals, but we closed out the one-day campaign with a genuine team effort to comprehensively defeat Southern Districts.

We transitioned to a two-day round just prior to the mid-season interval and it was at this time I had just returned to Christchurch after a three-year absence. Having played lower grade cricket while away, I thought I'd make a gradual return to morning grade cricket but was immediately thrust into the fray for this game.

We kept the strongest Division 2 side, Halswell, to 194/7 before their mandatory declaration, which was a satisfying effort. Unfortunately, as it was to be for much of the season, our batting failed to step up and we were bowled over twice for double-figure totals to lose by an innings.

It was clear then that we had to work a lot on our batting game plan, particularly with respect to changing our mindset while in the middle. As part of the refreshed approach, Aman kindly deputised on day two of this game, allowing me to officially take over the captaincy for the second half of the season.

In the New Year we kicked off our Twenty20 campaign, a format which suited the way we played given a lot of the team were much more accustomed to shorter-form cricket. If a couple of our batsmen got going we had the potential to knock off some of the top sides.

It didn't start too promisingly as we got caught out on a wet pitch on neutral turf at Halswell against Old Boys Collegians. We only made 73, but almost managed to defend it. Manpreet Singh and debutant overseas player Alex Moore bowled superbly up front before our spinners came on to tighten things up, with wickets falling steadily throughout. Sadly, a six in the penultimate over was the decisive moment that helped OBC get home with just two balls to spare.

The "what if" game of the season for us came next, as faced Marist-Harewood in a twilight Thursday encounter. We restricted them to 75 in 20 overs, with overseas left-arm seamer Ronan Pithie and the slow hooping in-swing of Mandeep Sandhu combining brilliantly for figures of 5-15 off eight overs between them. We thought that surely the game was ours for the taking but a few too many loose shots - from myself included - and not enough strike rotation meant we fell an agonising seven runs short.

A comfortable win over Southern Districts got us off the mark, but the final three games saw us remarkably consistent with the bat - making scores of between 107 and 115, with Sartaj Singh making 30s each time - but on each occasion it wasn't quite enough runs to jag the 'W'.

Though the final placings for the Cobras in both white-ball competitions looks poor on the surface, we were only one win off reaching the semi-finals in both instances, such was the nature of the grade. Frustratingly, it was Marist - a side we could more than capably match and found ourselves in winning positions against every time - who proved to be our bete noire on both occasions.

We shifted back into two-day mode for the remainder of the season, with the goal being to bat time to take games deep and put the pressure back on the opposition. I put it upon myself to lead from the front and grind it out to set the innings up. Runs were a secondary concern against the new ball, as a total of 150-plus in the 45-over first innings would keep you well in the hunt heading into day two, where anything could happen.

We got off to an encouraging start with some grit shown up top against Hornby but fell away to manage only a below-par 108, despite batting close to the full 45 overs. However, we stayed well in the game, fighting hard to concede a lead of just 41. On day two we strictly adhered to the plan of trying to keep them in the field as long as possible to wear them down in the sun, making 144 in 68.3 overs. It was to no avail though, as they knocked off the 107 required with little trouble.

The remaining eight playing days ended up becoming three, with a win by default, a loss by default and a cancellation (due to the tragic mosque attacks) book-ending our season. My season ended prematurely in the middle of all this due to work and unfortunately team cohesion took a turn for the worse around the same time. There were some moments that were not in spirit of the mighty St Albans Cricket Club, but we managed to navigate our way to the end of the season. However, we will need to address how to avoid such issues cropping up again before we restart in October.

On the flip side, there were many positives to take out of this season. The team began to understand and develop their two-day game the more of it they played. The batting showed incremental signs of improvement, not least by the amount of time spent at the crease.

We were mainly let down by the number of starts the batsmen got without kicking on, with no half-centuries registered and Sukhjeet Singh's 45 against Hornby in a one-dayer the sole score even in the 40s. Some, such as overseas players Rory Humphrey and Tom Allen, put a lot of effort into their batting in the nets but were yet to fully reap the rewards in the middle - it is only a matter of time, however.

Bowling was the area in which we truly excelled, with the consistency of the attack throughout the year nothing short of superb. We certainly possessed one of the best attacks in the grade. Deepak Bhatia, with his accuracy and variations, led the team's bowling effort and was miles ahead in terms of total wickets, picking up more than double the next best. With an excellent average, economy and strike rate, he duly earned the nod as the team's player of the year.

Sam Singh showed great all-round promise and Shuiab Munna did any and every job the captain required of him with bat or ball, the latter in particular he excelled in, shelving his old medium pacers for off-spin.

We had a couple of fine guest performances from a pair of leg-spinners in the last month of the season: making his custom three-yearly token appearance from Scotland, Callum Dutia took 4-29 against one of the top teams in the grade; and Matt Kendall picked up the best Cobras figures of the season - on what turned out to be our final playing day of 2018/19 - with 6-32 against Southern Districts.

I would also like to thank all the overseas amateurs who played throughout the season. Your contributions to the team culture were vital and I wish you the best in your future cricketing endeavours.

Amidst a period of rebuilding with players coming back and solid recruitment over the off-season the mighty Cobras could be hissing again next year.

Finally, we managed it. After going so close last year - losing by a one-win margin after losing four incredibly tight games in the run home - this season we won the title in great style. It was a fantastic team effort throughout the year, one in which everyone stood up at some point to play their part with bat or ball. It truly was one of the best seasons I've been a part of with the club. It was always a team effort that got us the 'W' in games where we were looking down and out in, not an individual one like so many other sides in the grade relied on. The bond our team unit shares is special.

The season started off with a small change in personnel, which is pretty standard these days. We lost a couple of players, but at the same time gained a few too. It left us with an ample squad to choose from, meaning we were able to loan out players to help out other teams most weeks.

Our new players included Grant Ross, who returned to his afternoon grade roots after a few seasons with the Sabres. We also got ourselves a token Motueka man in Zane Phillips. His left-arm in-swingers were a real handful and his performances won him team player of the year honours. It was a pleasure to bamboozle many an opposition while bowling in tandem with Zane; most of our overs took about 90 seconds each to give them a hurry-up. We also managed an unusual coup, stealing George Devine and turning the Riccarton president's son into a fine Saints man overnight. He was always available for whatever the team or club needed from him. Kris Alexander re-joined the squad after a hiatus for family duties. We also acquired the services of one of the club's overseas amateurs, Ronan Pithie. Unusual for lower-grade cricket, his presence meant our attack was blessed with three front-line left-arm seamers.

Our season started with a hiss and a roar against grade newcomers, the dirty Riccs. A solid 64-run victory on a Polo artificial was just a taster of what was to come. Following a typical October washout, we produced comprehensive performances to overcome Merivale-Papanui (104 runs), Southern Districts (six wickets) and Lancaster Park Sunrisers (56 runs).

The first loss of the season came in a bitter match against the Burnside West University Strikers on a dead artificial track at Warren Park, a result which would spark a fierce rivalry for the rest of the season. We got back into our groove quickly enough, with Joel Turner making two 50s and a century in the next four games and the bowlers doing a superb job to defend 110 in the game he missed out in. We were sitting nicely at the break with an 8-1 record and the outright lead by two wins.

Unfortunately, the club was rather short of players upon the resumption and a second-string side tasted defeat to our closest rivals, LP Sunrisers. Once we got back to near full strength the squad's resolve hardened; we were determined to fight to the end no matter the situation. There were pivotal contributions made by Joel, Grant and Kris with the bat and Zane, Abe MacDougall, Alex Cooper and Elliot Anderson-Evans with the ball as the team got on a real roll.

Heading into March we were on six-match winning streak. Holding a two-win lead with three rounds remaining we could put ourselves out of LP's reach when we met at Barrington Park. Things got off to a rocky start as they took our opening bowlers apart after we sent them in. With runs leaking at an alarming rate, an unorthodox bowling change worked a treat to nip the first one out before a silly run out got rid of their main batsman soon after. We upped the pressure, eventually getting them to fold for just 136 after a huge total looked likely. Without our two highest scoring batsmen of the season (Joel and Grant) we sent No. 9 batsman Ronan in to do a job against the new ball. He determinedly grafted his way to the mid-innings drinks break before departing, at which point our promising start was somewhat undone and things were back in the balance at 60/5. However, out walked Dan Johnston on his Buccaneers debut. I had the best seat in the house at the non-striker's end as "Spud" went about his business, striking many a lusty blow in a 60-run partnership to get us within sight of the winners' circle. Another mini-collapse kept us on edge, with the equation down to five needed with two wickets in hand. However, Zane brought it home for the boys with a whip to the backward square boundary and the title was ours! We ended with a 92-run win over the only other side to have beaten us in the round-robin, meaning we finished with an eight-game winning run for a 16-2 win/loss record, the best of any Christchurch afternoon grade side.

Unfortunately, we were unable to do the double with the minor knockout cup, losing a close semi with a few of us away at a wedding. Losing the relatively inconsequential third place playoff took a little gloss off, but we still celebrated hard at season's end. It was a stellar year for the boys. After four years as the Buccaneers the first title is special, even more so with it being the first trophy of any kind for a few of the younger boys.

Along the way we had a few individual milestones:

- Joel passed 1500 runs and 50 dismissals
- Paul "Monkey" Partridge passed 1000 runs
- Elliot, Alex, Monkey, Jono and Joel brought up their 50th Buccs caps
- Elliot finally got his 50th wicket (even if it did take him 53 games!)

The next one to look forward to is who wins the race to 100 Buccaneers wickets between Alex (86) and myself (91).

It's been another great year for the Buccs. As always boys, let's do it all again next year and go back-to-back!

What a season it was ... unfortunately, it was memorable for all the wrong reasons!

With the loss of six of last year's playing group it meant that we started yet another season on the back foot, with just four full-time players. Despite this we were able to scrape together a side to get the season underway, under our apt new moniker of the Phoenix. In doing so meant the use of 45 players from all cricketing backgrounds.

The beginning of the season saw confusion around the new grading system implemented by Christchurch Metro Cricket. This led to us starting the season in Division 6, in what we quickly determined to be the old 3D grade, which was a level higher than we played last year. We were lucky to have most of the Division 2 players available for the first couple of weeks due to them having a two-day bye. We duly won our opening game of the season with the makeshift line-up. Sadly, it would be a long time before we tasted success again.

The rest of the games leading up to the Christmas break saw us struggle for any consistency, largely through a lack of available players. Although our regularly understrength side did gain the occasional extra player to bolster the numbers, we were unable to retain them for very long.

After defaulting the last two games before the interval as well as the first one back in the New Year, we were mercifully granted a change in grade, moving down to our rightful place in Division 7. In early February we had a welcome boost in player numbers, with plenty of young blood coming in to freshen up the squad. Whilst this didn't change the playing fortunes of the team too much, it did coincide with our second (and final) win for the season. In spite of the injection of new talent the battle to put together a full XI remained omnipresent until the end of the season, except for a single week where we were blessed with a relative embarrassment of riches - 13 to choose from!

Despite the organisational battles, it was interesting to watch how well the new members fitted in and displayed what skills they had to offer. Everyone who played showed some promise, which will hopefully develop even further should they continue to play next season.

One newcomer to St Albans was Diwash Bhattarai. His ability to perform would've been better served had there been a bit more stability around him. In his very first cricket season, the newly registered accountant didn't have nearly enough chances to show what he could do with bat or ball. Despite this, he played his heart out in every game he took part in and hope he enjoyed himself enough to return for another crack.

The other regular was club stalwart Matt Sutherland. There is no sufficient level of appreciation that can be shown to express just how valuable having someone of his ability in our side was. He didn't get enough time in the middle for his liking but I, for one, appreciate just how much of his limited personal time he sacrificed to play for us.

Another player who had a tough season with both bat and ball was Lalit Kumar. Thank you for showing up every week and doing your best under the trying situation that was the beginning of the season!

It's hard to say anything more than thank you to the following players: Chris McFarlin, Jason McKey, Kade Wallis, Ledon Dyer, Mario Kruger and Abhinav Sachdeva. Work, sport and family commitments meant cricket took a back seat, so thank you for helping fill in when able to.

To the guys who joined up late in the season: Sam and Ben McGarvey, Baljinder Singh, Jack Gillon, Josh Read, Jacob MacDougall, Allan Ball and Nathan Bailey - thank you for saving the last dregs of my sanity.

Ben McGarvey wasn't in fact actually wanting to play at all, but followed where his brother Sam was going, so ended up as a valued member of our squad. Even at the tender age of 14, he showed he is already a more than capable lower-order batsman, not to mention a more than handy new-ball bowler. In taking six cheap wickets in six games he showed he could tie down and frustrate batsmen with an accurate line.

Sam McGarvey took on the opening bowling role in his five games for us and showed that he could swing the new ball just as much as he could swing his bat. While he wasn't quite as lucky with taking wickets or scoring runs he was a more than successful foil for his brother. I look forward to seeing the siblings kick on together next season.

What can be said about our top run scorer for the season, Jack Gillon? In only his second game for the club he stood firm at one end while wickets tumbled around him to compile a brilliant century. His match-winning unbeaten 163 against Scots Raiders at Spreydon Domain easily ended up the club's top knock for the season. If he can get his ride to get him to games on time he will be a prolific batsman whoever he plays for.

As for me, the season was a long and frustrating one, especially as I took on the men's club captaincy role. The added responsibility tested my love for the game as I tried to balance personal, team and club needs.

Our team is at a crossroads, with the Phoenix needing to stay risen from the ashes and find itself on a more stable footing, from which we can fly high. Much work to be done. Until next season ...

Prior to the start of the season the BBBBs had a 30-year reunion which involved golf, a formal dinner, speeches and lots of fun and laughter recalling past glories and catching up with former team-mates, all of whom have represented the BBBBs with pride since the 1987 season.

As for the season itself, one word sums it up for the BBBB President's and that word is: injuries. Within the first three weeks we had three players out with serious injuries, seeing them miss multiple games. This was a big blow to team balance when you consider the calibre of the lads in question: opening bat Bazza (Barry Cox) and all-rounders Flav (Pierre Flavell) and Muzza (Murray Griffin). Take these guys out of the line-up on a regular basis and it makes it hard to be competitive week in, week out.

Throw in an unusual number of injuries picked up on what seemed like an almost weekly basis by a good portion of the remaining squad and it slowly started to become a problem. This was especially so when most of those falling over were bowlers, with the injuries often coinciding with when other key bowlers also happened to be unavailable.

But, on the plus side, a big bonus for us was the arrival to the club of a very good all-rounder in Mantis (Brad Hill) plus RJ (Robin James) returning to the St Albans fold. The downside for these two and Rich Mather was their limited availability status, which caused the captain a few headaches at times; you take these three guys out of your team at the same time and you lose three match-winners.

Despite the above mentioned we had a decent playing core. This included the ever-reliable Hampo (Mark Hampton) at the top of the batting order (not to mention close to the bottom of the bowling order) and his ever-present partner in Jimmy (James Alabaster), who had a great season, recording five fifties along the way. The ever-destructive Reado (Dean Read) at No. 3, smashed the team's only century of the season and took his usual high number of catches. Eagle (Brad Smith) was our bowling spearhead and the skipper tried to do his usual with the ball. We can't forget Big G (Gareth White), RT (Ryan Thomas), Slam (Duncan Hutton), Daygo (Graham Curgenvin) and Selly (Selwyn Cox), who all had their moments during the season; Slam in particular found his best bowling form for years and was a real handful on a number of occasions until a heel injury "stepped in" to slow him down.

Add this all together and you would think the season was a real struggle. But it goes to show how good this team is that despite all the injuries and unavailabilities across the season, we still managed a rather pleasing second place in the main competition and only have ourselves to blame for not winning the grade. There were two games we shouldn't have lost but came up short at the wrong time, including the last game of the main competition where victory would've guaranteed us a share of the title.

Lots of highlights come to mind over the season, the most notable was a debut President's grade century for Reado (his second ton for the club with a break of 17 years between his first and second, but well worth the wait). Some classical hitting from RJ saw it raining sixes for the majority of the season to go along with his fast left-armers and cat-like fielding. Mantis started slowly but found his touch the more he played and I can see him being a major factor come next season.

For the second year in a row the skipper managed to claim two hat-tricks, taking his record to eight career hat-tricks. This year I decided to get it out of the way quickly so took them in consecutive games, one of which was played with a pink ball just to add to the occasion.

I must also mention a few awesome events that happened in the season:

- The team celebrated our 30th anniversary
- Flav, Potty and Reado all celebrated 50th birthdays
- Jimmy received a tankard to celebrate 10 years of BBBB cricket
- Reado passed 6000 BBBB career runs
- Hampo passed 8000 President's grade runs and 11,000 club runs
- Potty passed 1150 club wickets
- Selly took a catch and batted, both in the same game!
- Daygo remembered which Sunday he had to turn up on each week to play (he's retired so every day is a Sunday)

As always the BBBB awards were keenly fought over again this season:

- Team player of the year - Reado
- Batsman of the year - RJ
- Bowler of the year - Eagle
- All-rounder of the year - Mantis
- Harbour Bridge award - Flav
- Mr Grumpy - Eagle
- Carthorse award - Bazza

Once again lots of fun had by everyone, both on and off the field, which is one of the main reasons we continue to play each year. Thank you to everyone who filled in for a game at some stage during the season.

Enjoy your winter lads, remember to do all that much needed pre-season fitness work so come the first weekend in October you are once again ready to go. I have a good feeling about the 2019/20 season.

We started the season in confusion and ended with a bit of a run of good form before ultimately falling short at the final hurdle.

The core of the team was back at it this season with only one player leaving the side to take up the hobby of "hitty walky" (golf). We picked up one new full-time player from the club (Raman Arora), who performed with the ball in the very first game, taking 3-10. Corrie Hoult also returned to the side after a few years away. We also had a new part-time player (James Silcock) join us towards the end of the season; he took an absolute screamer during the team's run of wins.

After a first-up win to begin the season it was a struggle as we couldn't put both a good batting and good bowling performance together in the same game. So, we entered the Christmas break with a solitary win.

The early part of the New Year was disrupted by lack of players due to various seasonal events plus it being the height of the wedding season, so we had to default a few games. We finally got it going at the back end of the season and were rewarded with a string of wins, which was a good way to finish.

Throughout the season the usual suspects showed up with the bat. A total of seven different players got past the grade retirement score of 40, with Michael Goldsbrough, Andrew Brown and Scott Baker passing the mark multiple times. That trio also featured at the top of three other batting accolades, with Scott posting the team high (59 not out), Michael the most runs (275) and Andrew the highest average (43.50).

As for the bowling and fielding we had six players take the three-wicket maximum before being unable to bowl again in the innings. Corrie, Andrew, Tom Wilson and Ben Anderson all grabbed decent hauls over the season but only one player managed to make it into double figures: Samuel Price, which was very unexpected.

The team will reassemble next season to continue the fun and enjoyment that afternoon cricket provides.

It was another exciting season for the Fozzies, who narrowly missed out on picking up some silverware. Most of the core of the side remained from last year, only losing the services of Greg Newell and Braden Petherbridge of the regulars. We were bolstered by the addition of Tim McClurg while Nick and Tim Yardley also joined for half a season each.

We had a bit of a disjointed start to the season - which included three cancellations plus a default in the opening eight rounds. We really got into a groove once things settled down and got ourselves up into fourth place by the time the top eight teams split off into their own section a couple of weeks into the New Year.

We remained in title contention heading into February, but sputtered along inconsistently at the back end of the season, so had to settle for third. We at least finished off on a high note in the mini finals series, chasing down 153 against the Richmond New Yorker Porkers with 27 balls to spare in the final game. This result emulated our earlier win over them in week three, chasing down 152 with one wicket in hand in the final over.

Regardless of results, our batting was consistently on fire - only three times were we bowled out for under 100. We had a stretch of seven games before Christmas where we blasted 150-plus, including a mammoth 208/4 against the Burnside West University Holstein's Boys. In this match Kade Atkinson went wild, blasting 72 not out including 57 runs off his last 14 balls (eight sixes).

On the individual front there were a lot of highlights. Kade was again named the T20 batsman of the year, notably scoring 256 runs before he was finally dismissed for the first time (he was also never out for single figures during the season). Todd Ramsay-Boyd enjoyed his best all-round year and picked up T20 bowler of the year honours as well.

Jack Ferris and Tim McClurg also performed handily with both bat and ball, while Gabe Borg's batting really came on, making it past the retirement mark twice.

It was another great social summer by the lads and we can't wait to do it all again soon - see you in October!

With a large chunk of players returning, this season was an opportunity to build on the small success we had in the previous year to keep developing the younger players and become more consistent as a team.

Although we had more losses than wins this season the games were closely fought and taught the girls a lot, which will be good learnings heading into next season.

This year the team had a lot of fun and we really enjoyed each other's company, including Saturday picnics which became something the girls really looked forward to each week. We believe that creating a good culture amongst the team and making all players who come into our environment welcome is the best way to retain players. This is only achieved by every member of the side buying in to achieve the common goal and being a team player.

The Magicians players had greater Canterbury commitments compared to previous seasons, which meant that other players had to step up as well as more eight-a-side Kirsty Bond Series games being played. The team did really well in this grade and managed five wins.

Our matches in the one-day competition were a lot more closely fought than in the past couple of years and we are getting more and more consistent the longer we play together. We had three wins in this grade but many of our defeats were by narrow margins. We aim to really push for a finals spot in this format next year.

We had many different contributors who stepped up at various times but in particular Katie Morris had a fantastic season. She was the glue of our team, present week in, week out and was a very consistent contributor on and off the field. Katie well and truly deserved the team's player of the year award.

Georgia Edge also had a standout season, proving herself and being very tough to score runs off for opposition. These performances gained her selection in the Magicians squad for the first time and was 12th man for many games. Georgia is a very exciting talent for St Albans and is dominating the club bowling crease at only 15.

Our relationship with North West Women's Cricket was imperative for us to consistently have 11 players on the field each week. It was great having a number of players join our team and get a taste of Premier cricket.

Eliza McIntosh was one from North West who played for us most weeks and is an exciting talent coming through. Her leg-spin challenged the grade's best batters and with the bat has shown she can definitely take on some of the best bowlers too. One to watch.

We would also like to thank North West for their work, with special mention to Angus McIntosh for his time and careful selection of which players would play for us on a particular week. We really appreciated this as it meant we very rarely played short.

Thanks must also go to Ryan Thomas, our women's club captain, for the tough job he had managing everyone's availability and making sure we had a team each and every week.

It's an exciting time for women's cricket around the world and we must make the most of the hype and investment that is being made into the game. Recruitment and a positive team environment is key. Ensuring that everyone is there to work as a team is vital to the team's success; wanting to perform and win for each other is crucial.

Twenty20:	18	12	6	0	1st (4)

The Artificial Maidens returned for another season and with four teams entered the competition reverted to a stand-alone Twenty20 competition, after being combined with Division 1 last year. It proved to be much more competitive than previously, with every team beating each other at some point and two or three teams regularly vying for the competition lead throughout the season. This made for a really enjoyable summer, with the potential for any game to go either way. It also meant that we had to be on form each week if we wanted to take the win.

The core of the team to return included: co-captains Anna Archbold and Jo Flack (the pair took over the reins as Jodi Uluakiafua was otherwise occupied growing a tiny human) plus Punam Dahya, Sarah French, Elrie Jordaan, Chris O'Brien-Smith and Rachel Harris. This year we were strongly supported by newcomers Tudor Parlane and Di Smith and welcomed the return of Moni Pettet, Casey O'Brien-Smith and Laura Bates. A few players filled in when needed, including Lizzie Cartwright, Fran Clark and Freddie Jefferd.

This year differed to previous ones as we managed to have a full contingent of eight players for the majority of games and there were even some weeks where we had extras. What are the odds of that?!

Jo, Anna, Punam, Elrie, Casey and Tudor had the bowling covered most weeks with Jo and Elrie taking the majority of the wickets. Anna had the best bowling stint, conceding only eight runs off her five overs in a game against Heathcote. The most notable game for the bowlers came in the last round before Christmas against Sydenham at Centennial Park. We were fairly certain a loss was coming after only making 51, but we proceeded to bowl them out - including their fill-in Premier players - for just 26.

The batting was a shared job across the team, with Jo, Moni, Frenchy and Tudor leading the way with some reliable opening stints and some solid boundaries when needed. Punam, Elrie and Casey kept the middle order going and Anna, Chris, Rachel and Di happily sorted out the final overs when required ... excluding the time where Anna ran Chris out just when she had found her best form of the season. Congratulations to Di for getting her first ever run - woohoo!

As we all know, catches win matches, yet we struggled to follow the mantra. Safe to say, we did not win any matches this year because of our prowess in the field. We could probably work on this aspect a bit over the off-season. The wicket-keeping was mainly shared between Frenchy and Anna, with Casey being required to take over the gloves when Tudor was bowling. Elrie and Jo made some guest appearances with the keeping pads, despite Elrie having to wear gloves that were twice the size of her tiny hands.

As the season came to an end there was nothing in it at top of the table. A big thanks to Sydenham for beating Lancaster Park in the penultimate week as this led to a season decider between us and LP.

We lost the toss (just the norm with Anna) but got to bat first anyway, which is what we wanted. Tudor and Moni opened, with Jo at first drop. Tudor smashed out 50 and had to retire. Casey and Jo finished off the overs, leaving LP to chase down 130 runs. Our bowling effort started with a hiss and a roar, with Tudor getting a wicket first ball (after spending at least five minutes setting the field with Jo). Anna followed up with the second wicket in the next over, caught behind by the quick-footed Casey, which set us up for an epic innings in the field. Jo and Elrie bowled the second spell, cleaning up the rest of the wickets, and we ended up winning by 25 runs. Grade winners!

Thanks to all the girls for a really good season. Fingers crossed we have a social T20 grade next year, so we can have a crack at back-to-back wins.

Treasurer's Report

The accounts presented to members recorded a deficit of $13,262 for the 2018/19 season.

Although income was slightly up on the previous season, we have had to wear some unexpected costs relating to our overseas flat and also our club's participation at the National Club Championships. This has seen expenses increase to levels well above forecast.

It is disappointing to note that this is the second year in a row we have had issues with our overseas flat around non-payment of their obligations. Following my recommendation, we will look at alternative arrangements for players coming from overseas that do not involve the club having to fund this. We are actively pursuing outstanding funds from a couple of individuals.

I believe the committee will need to come up with some alternative fundraising methods if we are to operate under the current model of employing the services of an overseas professional. The fickle nature of gaming trust grants remain a challenge and we cannot continue to rely on this source to provide the adequate income the club requires to function.

The club will need to employ a tightly controlled budget next season as we simply cannot have a repeat of last season.

It is pleasing to see a reasonable increase in our bar trading surplus. There were some well supported events held throughout the season and this will continue to be a vital income stream for the club.

This will be my last treasurer's report as I take a break to focus on other commitments. I have thoroughly enjoyed the two-and-a-half years in the role and am confident the new treasurer can turn the deficit around next season, with a focus on reduced expenditure and the club embracing the likely need for fundraising activity.

Notes to the Financial Statements

Note 1 - Statement of Accounting Policies

St Albans Cricket Club is a non-profit organisation. The financial statements are general purpose and prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice.

Unless otherwise stated the accounting principles recognised as appropriate for the measurement and reporting of earnings and financial position on a historical cost basis have been followed.

The entity qualifies for differential reporting because the Club meets the framework for differential reporting as the Club is not publicly accountable and is small. The club has taken advantage of all differential reporting exemptions.

Changes in accounting policies: There have been no changes in accounting policies which have been applied on bases consistent with those used in previous years.

The following specific accounting policies which materially affect the measurement of financial performance and financial position have been applied:

Accounts Receivable are stated at their estimated realisable value. Debts which are considered uncollectible are written off. There is no other provision for doubtful debts.
Stock on Hand - Bar Supplies has been valued at lower of cost or net realisable value.
Stock on Hand - Balls has been valued at lower of cost or net realisable value.
Equipment on Hand has been valued by the Committee.

Sponsorship: Sponsorship for services rendered to the club are accounted for as revenue and expense at values approximating the cost of the service provided.

Property, Plant and Equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation has been calculated using the rates shown in the Property, Plant and Equipment Schedule (Note 2). Material, Nets and Junior Material have not been depreciated as the committee charges all repairs, maintenance and replacements to expenses.

A mortgage security over the pavilion is held by Westpac Banking Corporation. At 31 May 2019 there were no advances drawn against this security (2018 - nil).

Related Party transactions: The Committee are also members of the Club and pay subscriptions on the same basis as other members. Services provided have been supplied on normal commercial terms.

Review Report

The Members of the St Albans Cricket Club

I have reviewed the financial statements of St Albans Cricket Club on pages 106 to 109. The financial statements provide information about the past financial performance of the Club and its financial position as at 31 May 2019. This information is stated in accordance with the accounting policies set out in the Clubs annual financial statements on page 109.

Executive Committee's responsibilities

The executive Committee is responsible for the preparation of financial statements which comply with generally accepted accounting practice in New Zealand and which present fairly the financial position of the Club as at 31 May 2019 and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date.

Reviewer's responsibilities

I am responsible for reviewing the interim financial statements presented by the Executive Committee in order to report to you whether, in my opinion and on the basis of the procedures performed by me, anything has come to my attention that would indicate that the financial statements do not present fairly the matters to which they relate.

Basis of Statement

A review is limited primarily to enquiries of personnel and analytical review procedures applied to financial data and thus providing less assurance than an audit. I have not performed an audit and, accordingly do not express an audit opinion.

I have reviewed the financial statements of the club for the year ended 31 May 2019 in accordance with the Review Engagement Standards issued by the New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants. These standards require that we plan and perform the review to obtain moderate assurance as to whether the statements are free from material misstatement whether caused by fraud or error. I also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Other than my capacity as a reviewer, I have no relationship with or interest in the Club.

Statement of review findings

Based on my review nothing has come to my attention that causes me to believe that the accompanying financial statements, set out on pages 106 to 109, do not fairly present the financial position of the Club as at 31 May 2019 and its financial performance for the year ended on that date in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice in New Zealand.

My review was completed on 26 June 2019 and my findings are expressed as at that date.
